Flash is an amazing dog and is extremely intelligent. You will often find him staring intently at you or at a situation. His foster says that he is the "judgiest" dog she has ever seen. He picks up concepts quickly but would benefit from a strong leader simply because he is so smart. Flash is very athletic and can effortlessly jump (not climb) a 4' fence, so he will need a taller fence or be walked regularly for potty breaks and exercise. He crates easily (but his foster mom reports that he cries like Chewbacca off and on while in there). Flash does well with cats and similarly-sized dogs when properly introduced. He has excellent inside manners and loves to lounge and be a couch potato. ...
