This is what Uma's foster family has to say about Uma. Uma is perfect for a family that may already have a dog. She is really the first foster we've had that has been fully accepted by our entire pack of males and females. Our 9 year old female matriarch treats her like another daughter and our two younger guys look at her as another sister. Uma will get along well with any dog. She gets along so well we took her to Georgia with us for thanksgiving. Shes a really sweet girl and hasn't met a person or dog she didn't like. She is wary of cats though. Doesn't seem aggressive. I think they scare her?. She's housebroken, getting much better walking on a leash and very loving. She loves to play outside with her foster sist...
